I want The McCabe Educational Trust to treat all donations I have made for this tax year and the six years prior to the year of this declaration (but no earlier than 6/4/2000) and all donations I make from the date of this declaration until I notify you otherwise, as Gift Aid donations.

It is a requirement of Giftaid that you pay an amount of Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax at least equal to the tax that the charity reclaims on your donations in the appropriate tax year (currently 25p for each £1 donated.)

We will acknowledge all donations

ABOUT THE TRUSTEES

THE REVD BOB JACKSON (Chairman)

Bob has escorted many McCabe parties to less visited destinations including India, Nepal and Bhutan, though his first-love is the Royal Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan. Bob maintains a link with the school the Trust helped build in the Himalayas.

CANON IAIN PATON (Secretary)

Iain is a Church of Scotland minister who has led many McCabe pilgrimages. He brings a wealth of administrative experience to our work and is a past minister of the Scots Kirk in Jerusalem and an honorary Canon of Jerusalem's Anglican Cathedral.

THE REVD KEVIN DUNNE

Kevin is one of a group of friends who have been instrumental in raising funds for a new building for the Lazaus Home for Girls in Bethany. This cause is dear to our hearts and together we hope to see this project through to fruition.

THE VERY REVD GEOFFREY MARSHALL

Geoffrey has conducted many pilgrimages including high profile experiences under the patronage of Lord Carey of Clifton. He was responsible for compiling, with the help of our other Trustees, an excellent devotional guide for tour leaders.

PREBENDARY DR BRIAN LEATHARD

Brian is a previous chairman of Friends of Sabeel UK and has travelled extensively throughout the Middle East. Together with his wife, Ramani, who works for Christian Aid, they bring a wealth of experience of the people and places of the Bible Lands.

THE REVD MAUREEN ALLCHIN

Maureen is an Anglican priest working in the Diocese of Salisbury and a member of the General Synod. She has led many pilgrimages to Israel/Palestine and was a founder Trustee of the McCabe Educational Trust - now returning after a 13 year break.

McCabe Educational Trust

Helping those in need we encounter
on our travels

McCabe in the Holy Land:

For many pilgrims an encounter with the “living stones” of the Land is the highlight of a pilgrimage. Here we introduce four projects regularly visited by McCabe parties and supported by the McCabe Educational Trust.

Bethany

Lazarus Home for Girls and the Jeel al-Amal Home for Boys side by side in Bethany are now very isolated on the “other” side of the Jerusalem separation wall. Our visits and financial support are crucial to their existence.

Bethlehem

Many pilgrim parties have a lunch stop at the Bethlehem Arab Society for Rehabilitation (BASR) where Edmund Shehadeh and his team work hard to enhance the quality of life of children in great need.

Also in Bethlehem, Helen Shehadeh, Edmund’s sister, looks after the Al-Shurooq School for Blind Children. We are truly privileged to share in the vision of this remarkable family working in the most difficult of circumstances.

Together we aim to leave a positive footprint on the paths we travel.

The McCabe Educational Trust was the initiative of Alistair McCabe and launched in 1991 by the Archbishop of Canterbury at Lambeth Palace. Since then grants of over £600,000 have been made to inspiring people we have met on pilgrimage. As “the haves” encounter the “have-nots”, the Trust has become a practical tool for one to help the other. A brief meeting of minds has often been transformed into a long-term financial and emotional partnership.

This leaflet introduces you to people you may meet on pilgrimage who have become our partners inspiring us as we lead our very different lives.

Every penny of every donation to the McCabe Educational Trust is passed on to the recipient with no deductions for administration. All administrative costs are fully covered by McCabe Pilgrimages.

With your help we will continue to help those in need we encounter on our travels.

More than £200,000 was sent to projects in 2008 and this year we aim to send more!

KEEP IN TOUCH

The Trust publishes a monthly diary on the McCabe website detailing income from donations and grants distributed PLUS all the latest news.

Keep in touch. Sign up on the website home page.

McCabe in India:

The Trust supports fifty boys at the Anand Niwas Boys Home in Nawabganj continuing three generations of McCabe missionary work in India. We will be happy to send you a leaflet and PowerPoint presentation of the work.

The Trust maintains a close association with Dr Graham’s Homes in the Himalayan foothills through child sponsorship and group visits.

In Nepal the Trust provided funds for the building of a school in the remote village of Daduwa and maintains a supportive tie with group visits.

Pilgrim Books

The Trust sells selected travel books to complement your pilgrimage, many of which are not readily available elsewhere. Ask for our Book List and order form. For book orders call freephone 0800 107 3 107

Remember the work of the Trust in your will

Every legacy, large or small, will be given, without any deduction for administration, directly to the people and projects supported by the Trust. With your help we will increase the scope of our work.
